

Harry, Ron and Hermione First Meet

Harry Potter is a boy who lives with his aunt, uncle, and cousin – the Dursleys – and, on his 11th birthday, a half-giant named Hagrid reveals Harry that he is a wizard and that he has been accepted at the Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry. He also informs the boy that his parents, a wizard and a witch, were killed by the evil wizard Voldemort and that Harry acquired the lightning-bolt scar on his forehead during the fatal confrontation. Afterwards, Voldemort disappeared, gravely weakened by his own rebounding curse, making Harry famous among the magical community as: “The child who lived”.

In the scene, Harry, Ron and Hermione are meeting for their first time on the train heading to Hogwarts.

After watching the scene, answer these questions:

1. What is Hermione looking for?
2. Can you tell the name of Hermione's spell? What does it fix?
3. What are robes? Why do they have to change?
